Our guest speaker for the 2010 Celina-Mercer County Chamber of Commerce Banquet is Robin Elston of Elston Consulting, LLC. Robin is an inspirational speaker who works with organizations to dramatically improve employee morale, commitment and productivity for results in both their personal and business lives. Additionally, Robin works with organizations to resolve challenges and to create and achieve strategic plans. Robin founded Elston Consulting in 2001 and it has become an international consulting organization having worked in dozens of states and countries. Robin is a Mercer County resident and through her dynamic personality she will bring local experience and humor to this year's banquet.
